The school confirms that the students match the requirements for eligible CERC 2007:

- A student must be willing and able to compete in the World Finals.
- A student must be enrolled in a degree program at the sponsoring institution with at least a half-time load. This rule is not to be construed as disqualifying co-op students, exchange students, or students serving internships.
- A student may compete for only one institution during a contest year.
- A student who has competed in two World Finals is NOT eligible to compete.
- A student who has competed in five Regional Contests is NOT eligible to compete.
- A student who meets the Basic Requirements and FIRST began post-secondary studies in 2003 or later is eligible to compete.
- A student who meets the Basic Requirements and was born in 1984 or later is eligible to compete.
- A student has not completed more than the equivalent of eight semesters of full-time study as of the date of the regional contest.
- The coach must demonstrate that such an extension would not provide an unfair advantage to the team.
